

naming Rules in JavaScript

- 1) Names can contain letters.
- 2) Names can contain digits, but not at beginning.
- 3) Names can contain and also start with `_` and `$`.
- 4) Spaces are not allowed (use camel case).
- 5) JavaScript is case-sensitive.
- 6) Reserved keywords cannot be used as names.

high-level	low-level language
1) high-level language human understandable language	low-level language machine understandable language
2) high-level language is in alphabets.	low-level language is 0 or 1.
3) easier to learn and use	more complex and harder to learn.

Compiler

- 1) The compiler the code all at once
- 2) The compiler codes run faster than Interpreter.
- 3) The compiler generates an output in the form of (.exe).
- 4) errors are displayed in compiler after compiling together at the current time.

Interpreter

- The interpreter - compiles code line by line.
- Interpreted codes run slower than compiler.
- The interpreter does not generate any output
- 1) errors are displayed in every single line.